*Call to Worship

Holly Hollman

In the midst of our troubles, we cry aloud to God.

God always hears our cries and responds to our needs.

God brings us up out of our trouble and sets us in a safe place.

God comforts and restores our souls.

The Lord has turned our mourning into dancing!

We have been clothed with joy and hope!

Let us worship God!

Prayers of the People & Lord’s Prayer

Leah Davis

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Giving on the Go

Rev. Thomas L. Bowen is the Earl L. Harrison Minister of Social Justice at the historic Shiloh Baptist Church of Washington, DC and has faithfully served that congregation as a member of the ministerial team in various capacities since July 2002. Rev. Bowen is also the Director of African American Strategic Engagement in the Executive Office of DC Mayor Muriel Bowser where he serves as both the Director of the Mayor’s Office on African American Affairs and the Mayor’s Office of Religious Affairs. He is considered the chief advocate and voice of both the African American community and the faith community in the District of Columbia. He is often called “DC’s Pastor.” Rev. Bowen is a graduate of Morehouse College, where he was a Ford Foundation Scholar, and received his ministerial and theological training from The Divinity School at the University of Chicago.
